Scholarships

Career Advancement Scholarship

Provides a 50% scholarship to employees of eligible employer partners. This program is designed to help working professionals advance their education with Northeastern.

Canada Domestic and Excellence Scholarship

Domestic Canadian students are eligible to receive up to 25% in scholarships towards their full or part-time on-ground studies this Fall 2026 or Spring 2027 at the Toronto campus. Domestic Canadian students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher from their previous institutions are eligible to receive up to 50%.

College of Engineering Global Campus Scholarship

The College of Engineering is offering a 25% tuition scholarship for the duration of the program to all students admitted to COE's MS programs in the Toronto campus. This scholarship is applicable to MS in Information Systems (https://toronto.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-information-systems/), and MS in Information Systems-

Bridge (https://toronto.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-information-systems-bridge/) for Spring 2026, Fall 2026 or Spring 2027 and to MS in Software Engineering Systems (https://toronto.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-software-engineering-systems/), and MS in Data Architecture and Management (https://toronto.northeastern.edu/academic_program/ms-in-data-architecture-and-management/) for Fall 2026 or Spring 2027. This scholarship is not applicable for current students in the program. This scholarship is stackable with other scholarships, but the combined scholarship amount cannot exceed 50% of the tuition. For more information, contact the Graduate School of Engineering at coe-gradadmissions@northeastern.edu (mailto:coe-gradadmissions@northeastern.edu).

Double Husky Scholarship

The Double Husky Scholarship is helping Northeastern alumni finance their graduate education by providing a tuition discount of up to 25 percent on more than 100 eligible degree programs. As an alumnus or alumna of Northeastern, you are automatically considered for the scholarship when you apply to one of the eligible graduate degree programs. Learn more (http://www.northeastern.edu/graduate/doublehusky/overview/).

Tuition and fees are set on an annual basis by Northeastern University's Board of Trustees. For the current estimated cost of your program of choice, please refer to the individual program fees on the Northeastern Student Financial Services (https://studentfinance.northeastern.edu/billing-payments/tuition-and-fees/canadian-campuses/) website.

Northeastern University in Toronto offers a variety of scholarships to support student aid. Domestic learners are classified as either Canadian citizens or permanent residents in Canada. Scholarships apply only to new students enrolling in the outlined terms stated above at the Northeastern University Toronto campus. All scholarships are subject to cancellation or modification and are applicable to any program offered at Northeastern in Toronto. Scholarships are stackable only up to a maximum of 50% of total tuition.
