Scholarships

Inaugural Align Online Scholarship

Domestic Canadian students admitted to the inaugural Fall 2026 cohort of the Align MS in Computer Science Online–Canada program are eligible for a 25% tuition scholarship toward the total cost of the program.

Career Advancement Scholarship

Provides a 50% scholarship to employees of eligible employer partners. This program is designed to help working professionals advance their education with Northeastern.

Canada Domestic and Excellence Scholarship

Domestic Canadian students beginning their studies on-ground for Fall 2026 and January 2027 are eligible to receive up to 25% in scholarships towards their full or part-time studies; students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher from their previous institutions are eligible to receive up to 50%.

Liu Kuo – Chun Educational Foundation Fellowship

Provides five scholarship awards of $10,000 USD each to selected students admitted to Northeastern University in Vancouver for the Fall 2026 or Spring 2027 semester. Established through Northeastern alumnus Julian Wong, the award supports students who at any time in their educational career have studied in China or Hong Kong, or who have an interest in China and/or Hong Kong. Selection considers academic standing and requires a scholarship application as part of the admissions process.

College of Engineering Global Campus Scholarship

The College of Engineering is offering a 25% tuition scholarship for the duration of the program to all students admitted to COE's MS programs in the Vancouver campus. This scholarship is applicable to MS in Data Analytics Engineering (https://vancouver.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-data-analytics-engineering/), MS in Information Systems (https://vancouver.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-information-systems/), and MS in Information Systems-Bridge (https://vancouver.northeastern.edu/academic_program/master-of-science-in-information-systems-bridge/) for Fall 2026 or Spring 2027. This scholarship is not applicable for current students in the program. This scholarship is stackable with other scholarships, but the combined scholarship amount cannot exceed 50% of the tuition. For more information, contact the Graduate School of Engineering at coe-gradadmissions@northeastern.edu (mailto:coe-gradadmissions@northeastern.edu).

CAMD MS Information Design and Data Visualization Scholarship

Students admitted to the MS in Information Design and Data Visualization in Vancouver for Fall 2026, will automatically receive a 40% tuition reduction via a campus-based scholarship and will also be considered for regular CAMD merit-based awards. Both international and domestic applicants will be considered. For more information, contact the College of Arts, Media and Design at gradcamd@northeastern.edu (mailto:gradcamd@northeastern.edu).

MS in Health Informatics Scholarship

Domestic Canadian students admitted to the Fall 2026 and Spring 2027 cohort of the Master of Science in Health Informatics at Northeastern University's Vancouver campus are eligible for a 25% tuition scholarship toward the total cost of the program.

Double Husky Scholarship

The Double Husky Scholarship is helping Northeastern alumni finance their graduate education by providing a tuition discount of up to 25 percent on more than 100 eligible degree programs. As an alumnus or alumna of Northeastern, you are automatically considered for the scholarship when you apply to one of the eligible graduate degree programs. Learn more (http://www.northeastern.edu/graduate/doublehusky/overview/).

Tuition and fees are set on an annual basis by Northeastern University's Board of Trustees. For the current estimated cost of your program of choice, please refer to the individual program fees on the Northeastern Student Financial Services (https://studentfinance.northeastern.edu/billing-payments/tuition-and-fees/canadian-campuses/) website.

Northeastern University in Vancouver offers a variety of scholarships to support student aid. Domestic learners are classified as either Canadian citizens or permanent residents in Canada. Scholarships apply only to new students enrolling in the outlined terms stated above at the Northeastern University Vancouver campus. All scholarships are subject to cancellation or modification and are applicable to any program offered at Northeastern in Vancouver. Scholarships are stackable only up to a maximum of 50% of total tuition.
